State Report Card

State and federal laws require public schools to release report cards to the public each year. This year, the report card has been updated to reflect changes in reporting directed by the SC Education Oversight Committee. Schools will not be rated for state accountability purposes until Fall 2017 when the state will transition to a single accountability system. The following reports student performance in school year 2014-15.

WORLD CLASS SKILLS & LIFE AND CAREER CHARACTERISTICS

Our school is helping all students develop the world class skills and life and career characteristics of the Profile of the Graduate by ...

Landrum Middle School is helping all students develop the world class skills and life and career characteristics of the Profile of the South Carolina Graduate by firmly believing that high expectations continue through the alignment of the curriculum to the SC Academic Standards and the College and Career Readiness Standards (CCRS). Using a "backward by design" approach, teachers place emphasis on higher level depths of knowledge and Bloom's questions. The Google drive and other web-based resources have enhanced collaboration within our established Professional Learning Community. Calendars, activities, lesson plans, and documents are shared with the entire school community. The accessibility of lesson plans has strengthened unit planning and cross curricular connections among academic arts, special services and content area teachers. Google docs provides a vehicle to respond to professional literature and to reflect upon instructional practices. Observations conducted by the leadership team have allowed for immediate feedback on instruction and students. Landrum Middle firmly believes that hard work, dedication and perseverance are keys to success, and that success is its own reward. At Landrum Middle, we recognize students who demonstrate good character. Our "Got Red?" program features a student of the month, nominated by the teachers. This student is one who exemplifies the qualities of a good student and citizen with an emphasis on Respect, Excellence, and Determination. We acknowledge each student "caught" being a defender with a "Power of One" bracelet, as an extension of OLWEUS, an anti-bullying program. Achievement in the fine arts is recognized through a number of programs. Student artwork is displayed in school, in our Principal's Art Gallery, and in the community through the Milliken Art Gallery and Chapman Cultural Arts Center. Our chorus competes for ratings among other groups in the upstate. Band and orchestra students are recognized for their selection in all region and all-state performance groups. A favorite incentive is our annual reading celebration. Our PTO, with the sponsorship of local businesses, hosts a carnival for all students who read and record their pages throughout the year. Landrum Middle School is a school for the heart and mind. We are on a student-centered journey that is devoted to the whole child and academic excellence. Crystal McSwain, Principal Mary Lou McInerney, SIC Chairperson
